1972. Charlotte Hammarskjold, an innocent and voluptuous graduate student in San Diego, finds herself in deep trouble when her new boyfriend turns out to be a 420 (marijuana) smuggling kingpin. But Regina, a sheriff's deputy, has fallen for Charlotte. Hard.

Can an awkward F/F romance survive the FBI, personal boundary issues, and 15 overdue interlibrary loan books?

The 420 Uh-Oh is a funny and sweet story with some explicit scenes.

First-time F/F erotic romance. Adults only. Over 14,000 words.

Excerpt:

"Can you scoot forward a bit?"

Charlotte obeyed. Regina slid down to sit on the floor where Charlotte had been, splaying her legs wider to fit her facing-away guest between them.

"How much do you charge?" Charlotte asked. She sighed as Regina massaged her back. "Whatever it is, I can afford it."

"My rates are very reasonable."

Charlotte said nothing. She closed her eyes and bowed her head.

After a few minutes, Regina's hands slid under Charlotte's arms. Regina cupped her breasts gently.

"Oh my," Charlotte murmured.

"Too forward?"

"Extremely."

"You'll have to call the police."

"I haven't had good luck with them lately."

Regina began unbuttoning Charlotte's pajama top: a slow, deliberate undressing.
