"Why does this book exists? Well, they say that love should be shared. This book is a way of sharing love for music, even in places where music might not be heard and love seems to have disappeared. In coming years, this book will be continued and transformed. See the website address on the inside and follow its journey.... This is a limited edition, since it will not be available as soon as the new version is published."

This book is out of print, which makes it one of the rarest books in the human history. There is only a handful of copies left. This is the first Paperback that was written, prepared/designed (interior and exterior), and published by using nothing but Voice Software.

Please excuse some errors that might be in this version. The general consensus is that it is almost impossible for this book to exist, considering the current speech to text technology.

"Since 1998, this book is written, prepared and designed (interior and exterior) without ever using any writing utensil (pencil, pen, etc.), without a typing device (typewriter, computer keyboard, etc.), and without a virtual, pointing device (computer mouse, touchpad, etc.).

Poetry/American/General
