Of By & 420

this year seems

important

don't they all

this year politics

might move people

after all it's an election year and if

'of, by & for the people'

is what we learned

the people should

pay attention

the will of the people

might be challenged

both sides of the establishment paradigm challenged as well

the silent majority

might turn out to vote

the silent majority

might wake up and demand the republic be restored to an

'of, by & for the people' status until then it's of, by & 420 today because they are gonna stone you for whatever you do or do not waste another minute

the jester's words

ring truth...
